

Nisei Students Win Many Honors At Washington U

SEATTLE — Twenty-two nisei students were honored recently by the University of Washington at the fifth annual honors convocation held in Meany hall on the campus. In all 524 scholastic awards were made.

The great majority of the nisei, being already evacuated to various assembly centers, received their honors in absentia.

Phi Beta Kappa memberships went to George Kumasaka, Mary Toribara, Kazuko Umino and Kiyoshi Yamashita.

New members and associates of the Society of Sigma XI (Science) include Kazuo Kimura and Thomas Okabe.

Chiyeka Kiyone and Yoshiko Uchiyama are members of Omicron Nu (Home Economics).

William T. Makino and Liy Yuri Yorozo were accepted by Alpha Kappa Delta (Sociology).

Sigma Epsilon Sigma (Undergraduate Women) extended membership to Mariko Fujioka, Kazue Kiyono and Alice M. Togo.

Ben T. Uyeno is a member of Phi Sigma (Biology).

Toshiyuki Fukushima, Yoshiko Ito and William T. Makino made Zeta Mu Tau (Mathematics—Applied).

Kazuko Umino was one of four accepted by Iota Sigma Pi (Chemistry—Women).

Minori Araki and Norio Higano are members of Pi Mu Chi (Pre-Medic).

Kiyo Fuji, Toshio Noma and Mary Shimoda were among the ten who were honored by Phi Chi (Pharmacy).

Mary Toribara also made Pi Mu Epsilon (Mathematics).

Ruby Inouye made Sigma Epsilon (Women's Allied Medical Arts).