SUBJECT: Camp Harmony, Puyallup, Washington

No.	Date	From	To	REMARKS
1	1942 8-17	AC of S G-2(CIB)	AC of S CAD	1. Reference is made to a previous request from this office for the removal to separate relocation centers of four subversive Japanese at Camp Harmony. 2. Attached herewith is copy of report on conditions at Camp Harmony by the Officer in Charge, Seattle Branch Office, AC of S, G-2, Western Defense Command and Fourth Army. It is recommended that the following additional Japanese now at Puyallup be transferred to separate relocation centers, to counteract subversive activities as outlined in the attached report: S. HOSOKAWA (father of WILLIAM HOSOKAWA, already transferred) Kenji OKUDA William MIMBU Frank Y. KINOMOTO J.H. 1 Incl: Copy of rpt. fr. Seattle BIO, 8/14/42, subj: "Conditions Existing at . . . Puyallup . . ." (In dup.)
2	8/23/42	Maj. Ashworth	Col. Boekel	1. Of the 4 men, S. Hosokawa, Kenji Okuda, William Mimbu, and Frank Y. Kinomoto, recommended for transfer to separate assembly centers by G-2, it appears to me S. Hosokawa, provided he is an alien, could be interned if the "Japanese Association" mentioned in paragraph 4 means either the Central

				Japanese Association (Beikiku Chuo Nipponjin Kai) or the Japanese Association of America. 2. Kenji Okuda, William Mambu, and Frank Y. Kinomoto, mentioned in paragraph 5, apparently are citizens and cannot be interned. Therefore, they should probably be transferred to centers other than Minidoka where all of the Puyallup evacuees are scheduled to go, simply as a means of throwing them off balance for a few days. R.A.
